

SAVE THE DATE!

Exploring Safety, Safeguarding and Harm among Catholic Women Religious International Perspectives

This two-day workshop will explore theological and social research and information around safety, safeguarding, and spiritual and sexual harm in communities of Catholic Women Religious around the world.

EVENT DETAILS:

Dates: Friday 11 October and Saturday 12 October 2024

Time: 9.30am to 3.30pm

Venue: The Sisters of the Good Samaritan Conference Centre
2 Avenue Rd,
Glebe NSW 2037

Speakers: Dr Ute Leimgruber and Dr Magdalena Huerten from the University of Regensburg, Germany will share the latest findings from studies of spiritual and sexual harm in Europe.

Dr Rocio Figueroa, a Peruvian theologian from Te Kupenga Catholic Theological College, Aotearoa, New Zealand, will speak about her work with Catholic Women Religious in Africa where she has been piloting a successful educational program for building safeguarding practices and policies.

Dr Tracy McEwan and Dr Kathleen McPhillips from the University of Newcastle, Australia, co-authors of the International Survey of Catholic Women will report on their work looking at historical patterns of harm and resilience among congregations of women religious in Australia.

REGISTRATION:

Cost: Free of charge

RSVP: Friday 4 October 2024

Register: Humanitix

Enquiries: Taylor Coutinho, CRA

Phone: 02 9557 2695

Email: ea@catholicreligious.org.au

The workshop is supported by CRA and funded by the University of Newcastle.